

GLITCHED

Welcome as Crew at Glitched 2026!

We are pleased that you have chosen to come along on this journey as a volunteer on Glitched 2026 - Sweden's new LAN and gaming festival!

To ensure that our events provide a safe and respectful working environment, we have established a crew policy which you are required to review and formally approve.

This approval must be completed prior to your arrival at the event.

Violation of the policy may result in your immediate removal from the event and may also negatively impact your eligibility to participate in future events.

General information	2
Health & Safety	2
Notice of sickness	3
Diversity, Equality & Inclusion	3
Alcohol & Drugs	4
Photo policy	4

General information

As a volunteer at Glitched, you are representing Glitched and it's brand and therefore need to follow the rules and guidelines we have set for the event

To be a volunteer at the event you need to;

- Be above 18 years of age
- Treating everyone with respect means showing consideration, avoiding derogatory language and acting inclusively in all situations in regards to crew, Glitched staff and visitors
- Be a team player but also able to work on your own
- Have the physical ability to perform your tasks in a safe matter
- Always wear your crew badge supplement with the crew t-shirt when you are on shift.

This policy constitutes a binding set of rules that all volunteers commits to comply when participating in Glitched 2026. Violations of the policy may result in the termination of the volunteer assignment.

This policy applies from arrival at the area Glitched disposes of until the area is vacated after the event.

Health & Safety

GLitched are determined to provide a safe and healthy environment for everyone attending at Glitched. As Crew, you are a big part of preparing and hosting Glitched and it is important that all safety routines are followed to ensure your and others safety.

To avoid accidents and incidents you need to do the following;

- Always follow given instructions on how to perform the task - ask a manager on site if you are unsure.
- If you are working around heavy machinery or height tasks, ensure visual contact and communication with the driver and others around to avoid damage to person or property.
- Familiarize yourself with the premises to know where the closest emergency exits are and how to get access to First Aid equipment.
- Always wear your crew badge to get access where you need it.
- Never let anyone in unless they have the correct access.
- Always report to a manager if you see a situation that can lead to accidents or incidents.
- Never use equipment you do not have correct and approved training to use. This applies in particular to lifting devices, electrical equipment and other potentially dangerous technology.

- In case of emergency;
 - Stay calm and assist others if needed
 - Follow the instructions given and if needed, show the way to nearest emergency exits and gathering points.
 - Always prioritize your own and others safety and provide correct information to safety personnel if needed.
 - Never return to the premises without approval from safety personnel.

Notice of sickness

If you due to sickness can't attend your shift or the event in full, this needs to be reported as soon as possible.

- Notify your Team Lead
 - As soon as you know you cannot attend, contact your Team Lead and notify them.
- Give key information
 - Include your personal information, when you are planned to work and what your planned tasks are. Also inform us when you plan to return to work again.
- Follow up
 - If you are able to return sooner or need additional time to recover, always communicate this to your Team Lead.

If you for any reason can't reach your Team Lead, always notify Crew Manager on site or via crew@glitched.se

Om du av någon anledning inte kan kommunicera detta till din Team Lead ska du istället meddela Crew Ansvarig via crew@glitched.se.

Personal data provided in connection with sick leave, incident reporting or other communication is processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Only authorized personnel have access to the data, and it is not stored for longer than necessary.

Diversity, Equality & Inclusion

It is against the law to discriminate directly or indirectly against age, disability, sex, pregnancy, race (which includes color, nationality, ethnic or national heritage), sexuality, religion or faith and marital status.

Glitched is dedicated to, and working actively to ensure no one is exposed to offensive or derogatory treatment, discrimination or violence by any kind.

It's important that all situations of these kinds are reported to Glitched staff as soon as possible to be investigated and actions can be taken if necessary.

- Identify a situation or concern
 - Gather information including what was observed, when and where it happened and who is involved.
- Report and share details
 - This can be reported directly on site to Crew Manager or via email to crew@glitched.se
- Investigation and follow up
 - The matter will be investigated hastefully and confidentially, only necessary staff will be informed and all reports will be handled most seriously.

Alcohol & Drugs

Glitched is an alcohol free and drug free festival, and this also applies to Crew. The purpose is to avoid illness, accidents and incidents and ensure a safe work environment.

- All volunteers are to be alcohol free and drug free during the event.
- It is not acceptable to arrive at the event affected by drugs or alcohol. It is up to Glitched Staff to determine if the individual is suitable to work.
- If you are affected by alcohol you are not allowed to enter the premises at Elmia, you need to arrange living arrangements elsewhere until you are sober again.
- If you are using prescription medication that can affect your work and safety, always notify your closest manager that together with Glitched Staff determine if the work needs to change for a period of time.

These rules apply on our Crew spaces such as Crew Area and the Crew dining hall, but also open areas such as the Elmia halls, the outside area with food trucks and the camping.

We have a common responsibility to our working environment, always notify if you see a risk or uncertainty.

If suspected of being under the influence of alcohol or drugs, Glitched Staff reserves the right to immediately remove the person from the area. Violation may result in termination of the volunteer assignment and possible revocation of accreditation.

Photo policy

It is prohibited to take photographs or film behind the scenes, in stages, partner booths or other parts of the event that are not yet, or will never become public. Violation of this rule may result in the images being deleted and the volunteer assignment being terminated.

End notes

I hereby confirm that I have read, fully understood, and agree to comply with the crew policy applicable to Glitched. I acknowledge and accept that any breach of the policy may result in my immediate removal from the event and may negatively affect my eligibility to participate in future events.